Linn County Department of Health Services Update Regarding COVID-19: March 18, 2020

Linn County Department of Health Services has learned that a local Health Care Provider has tested positive for COVID-19. If you came in contact with the person, you will be notified and provided with steps you can take to care of yourself and your loved ones. In keeping with our privacy practices, Department of Health Services will not be releasing the name of any persons who are positive or any identifying information.

Linn County Department of Health Services staff continue to work in partnership with the Oregon Health Authority, local health services, fire and emergency medical services, and our community based organizations to protect the health and wellbeing of the public. Linn County Public Health is running an Emergency Operations Center to coordinate preparedness and response efforts across the county and support community capacity to respond to this rapidly evolving situation.

You can take steps to protect yourself and your loved ones at this time including:

- Wash your hands with soap and warm water for 20 seconds
- Do not touch your eyes, mouth, or face with unwashed hands
- Practice social distancing of three to six feet
- Stay home if you are not feeling well
- Call your primary care provider or, if you do not have a primary care provider, your local urgent care, if you have any symptoms including a fever, shortness of breath, and cough.
